

MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Friday, February 19th, 1904 at the Post Office at Harboursville, Knox County, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.
NOTICE—LIVE FOR OUR FRIENDS—DO THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF GOOD WE CAN TO THE LARGEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE.

Terms: $1. Per Year in Advance.

BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1905.

Second Year. Vol. 2. No. 36.

Chicago Capitalists Interested and Propose to Finance Our New Rail Road on Certain Conditions.

IF WE DISPLAY PROPER INTEREST OUR NEW RAILROAD IS NOW ASSURED.

The circulation of the Mountain Advocate in the city of Chicago containing articles from time to time touching upon the proposed new railroad and commenting upon the rich resources it would open up to the markets of the world has reached the hands of capitalists in that city, who sent a representative here last week to look over the ground and make some investigation.

After thoroughly investigating our plans and proposed route, he returned to Chicago and laid them before his associates there; and after hearing his report they authorized him to submit a report to us, which in substance is as follows:

If we will raise $100,000 in the six counties along the line of the proposed railroad by subscription and collect 25 per cent. of it and turn it over to them, they will give us a guarantee bond to the effect that they will faithfully begin construction of our railroad for us within an agreed period of time and complete same as rapidly as possible, and in the event they should fail to do this our money will be returned to us, and we will have the stock to the amount we have subscribed in the road.

They will make all surveys and all that they would expect of us would be to secure the right-of-way and pay 25 per cent. of our $100,000 capital stock to guarantee our good faith.

From the letter referred to it is clear that the eyes of the world are turned this way, and if we really want this road it is in our power to secure it.

Knox county has already subscribed about $12,000 of the necessary $100,000, and we feel confident that the remainder of her share can be secured without much effort if the counties of Whitley, Clay, Owsley and Lee, and Campbell county, Tennessee, will respond in the same way the necessary stock can be raised within a few days.

We are taking, no risk in this matter, as they propose to give a bond for the money we place in their hands, and if we get the road we will have stock in it to the amount we subscribe; if we don't get the road we will get our money back.

Now let's push this matter to a finish, and soon we will see work under way constructing this road, which will prove the greatest benefit to the mountains of Southeastern Kentucky of anything that has ever yet been done.

Now for a strong pull and a pull altogether and the thing is accomplished.

Don't wait for the fever to die down if you do it will be harder than ever to start it again, and besides, this proposition may not stand open long, as capital is always seeking investment, and delay might cause us to fail to secure necessary finance to construct the road. Act now while the opportunity is ripe.

IN MEMORIAM.

[OF ERLE TINSLEY FAULKNER.]

He's gone and we miss him, no more will the sound
Of his dear little feet be heard on the ground,
And morning and evening as the days come and go,
We listen in vain for his step on the floor.

He's gone and no more will our bright, happy boy
Fill the old house with gladness and joy;
And never again will his sweet voice be heard
That blended so well with the song of the birds.

Yes, we miss him, our boy that to us was so dear;
For like the sunshine he seemed to be everywhere;
He found the first violets that bloomed in the spring,
And knew the birds that came to their old haunts to sing.

His life was so short, yet each day that we turn,
We see something his sweet busy fingers have done;

But never again through the bright summer hours,
Will his hands train the vines or gather the flowers.

His school-books his bright eager eyes have perused,
Are filed away on the shelves never more to be used;

And his clothes we touch gently and fold away with our tears,
Never more to be worn through all the long years.

One long weary year, with its shadows have passed,
Since we looked on the face of our sweet darling last,
In our sad hearts that mourn for him still.

There is told no earthly joy can fill,
He's gone and we miss him, oh, sad was the day.

That God in his mercy did take him away;
To wait his pure spirit in peace to the skies.

To swell the glad chorus of angels on high.

Thou alone blessed father in thy home above
Canst fathom the depths of a mother's love;

Thou alone canst the healing balm impart,
That brings peace to the wounded broken heart.

Farewell, then, dear lost one thou'rt gone from us here,
But we know we'll soon meet thee in glory up there;

Where Jesus himself wipes away all our tears,
And together we'll praise him thro' eternity's years.

—MOTHER.

NOTICE.

The legal voters of precinct No. 3, of Knox County, will take notice that an election will be held in said precinct at the regular election on November 7, 1905, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the legal voters of said precinct upon the question whether or not they wish such as cattle, horses, mules, sheep and hogs to run at large in said precinct.

Given under my hand as Sheriff of Knox County, this Sept. 19, 1905 9 22-4. W. W. BYRLEY, S. K. C.

Gilbert-Davis.

At the residence of the bride's parents at Clear creek, Bell county, Judge James M. Gilbert, of this place, and Miss Amanda Davis, were united in marriage Wednesday. After the ceremony Judge and Mrs. Gilbert left for a short trip to Louisville and Cincinnati. Miss Davis was one of the most popular young ladies of Bell county.

Wilson, J. M. Tinsley, W. W. Tinsley, J. S. Higgin, H. T. Brown, J. W. Messamore, B. S. Matthews, John Bolton, Frank Mitchell, J. F. Dozier, Frank McDonald, D. W. Clark.

How to Vote of the Coming November Election.

VOTED.

Every voter in Knox county who presents himself at the polls on November 7th will be presented with a ballot with the Log Cabin printed thereon, and the circle under it is for him to stamp as shown in voted cut. It will have the circle without the X, and all that is necessary to vote the entire Republican ticket is to stamp the X as shown in the cut above. Then vote YES for the Court-house bonds and fold the ballot and give it to the officer to deposit in the ballot-box and your work is done. You can pass out and give your space to some other man to go and do likewise.

Promoted.

Mr. J. H. Gallagher, who has served for the past four years as chief clerk in the general passenger office in charge of advertising for the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway Company, has succeeded Mr. George L. Garrett as traveling passenger agent. Mr. Garrett having resigned to enter other business.

Mr. Gallagher is a very polite and accommodating young man, and the fact that he has held a responsible position with his company for the four years past, and is now promoted only shows the esteem in which he is held by those who know him best.

Those who desire to travel over the "Henderson Route" will find it to their interest to write a letter to Mr. J. H. Gallagher at Louisville and they will receive every attention it is possible for him to show them.

DO YOU SEE?

How can you spend these long evenings without having a good light by which you can keep posted as to the happenings throughout the country. You cannot enjoy your reading by a kerosene lamp or tallow candle, but if you have one of those 16 candle power Shelby electric globes you can see to read in any part of the room and your eyes will not tire and pain you. They are a great luxury and no home in our town should be without the electric light service. The new management has overhauled the plant and it now gives entire satisfaction to all who are using the service. Try it, and you will not again be without it.

STRUNG UP

Virgil Bowers, Negro Murderer of George Farris, Lynched by Laurel County Mob.

At an early hour Tuesday morning a masked and armed mob of Laurel county men, at the point of guns, overcame the guards at the Laurel county jail at London and took Virgil Bowers, the self-confessed murderer of George Farris. Proceeding a short distance out of London on the Harboursville road the negro was strung to an apple tree. So quietly was the work done that few knew of the deed outside the members of the mob until daylight, when the dead body of Bowers was discovered by a hotel porter.

The lynching, the first that has occurred in that county for over forty years, has created great excitement. Last Monday large crowds from the surrounding country flocked into London. Monday evening a mass meeting was held, participated in by a large number of representative citizens, condemning the summary proceedings of the mob.

Efforts will be made to apprehend the members of the lynching party, it is said.

The murder of Farris, who was a wealthy lumberman of Grays, this county, occurred at the London fair, and for a time there was talk of mobbing Bowers. He received two trials, the last time receiving a life sentence. It is said that arrangements had been made for taking an appeal.

Killed by Train.

Frank Mays was run down and killed by a train on the L. & N. road near the foot of Knox street at an early hour Monday morning at exactly the same place James Cox was killed a few weeks ago.

Mays was walking on the track in an intoxicated condition and was struck and knocked off. He was later found in an unconscious condition and died the same day.

Mays was a cousin to Jas. Cox, the man killed a few weeks ago, and both were drunk when killed.

There is no excuse for either of them being on the track at that particular place, and the accident was entirely due to their own negligence.

Football Game.

Last Saturday afternoon the first game of football was played at the College campus between the Williamsburg Institute and Union College, which resulted in 37 to 0 in favor of Williamsburg.

This was the initial game for our team, and as they had only been in training for two weeks, they did fairly well.

Our team will go to Williamsburg Saturday to meet their team on their own grounds.

TROUBLE.

It is a well known fact that everybody in every kind of business have their troubles, and it is useless to make trouble for yourself and your neighbor by putting off until next week what should be done to-day.

Time is money, and wasted time is money lost, and for this reason it costs us about three times as much as it should to collect our bills. We do not desire to be unreasonable, but we dislike to walk the town over six times a week to collect what we ought to collect in one day. It is our duty to see you and present our bill once and if you fail to pay, then it should be your duty to see us and make settlement if we grant you further time on your bill.

There must be a remedy for this and a rule established so that hereafter all Light bills not paid by the 10th of each month will be cut out, unless some satisfactory agreement has been made by that time.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

A MOTHER'S GIFT.

Remember her who gave thee this, When other days shall come; When she who had thy earliest kisses Slept in her narrow home; Remember 'twas a mother gave The gift to one she'd died to save.

That mother sought a pledge to love, The holiest for her son; And from the gifts of God above She chose a goodly one; She chose for her beloved boy The book of light and life and joy, And bade him keep the gift that when

The parting hour should come They might have hope to meet again In an eternal home. She said his faith in that would be Sweet incense to her memory.

And should the scoffer in his pride Laugh that fond faith to scorn And bid him cast the pledge aside That he from youth had borne, She bade him pause and ask his breast.

If he or she had loved him best, A parent's blessing on her son Goes with this holy thing; The love that would detain the one Must to the other cling. Remember, 'tis no common toy-- A MOTHER'S GIFT--remember, boy.

EVERY woman has it in her power to make the environments of her home uplifting and ennobling. Let every mother make her home attractive. She can adorn the walls of her home with pictures, inexpensive ones if necessary. A new toy may be made for a chair, occasionally, table covers renewed, beautiful flowers kept in view, and other ways the rooms may be made bright and cheerful. All these as surely give touch and shape to the child's mind as the sunshine paints the hues of the flowers. A child who goes out into the world from such a home, a home presided over by a mother who has striven to make it pleasant and attractive, who has striven to keep high and noble ideals before her children, one leaving such a home carries in his memory a heritage that cannot be compared to the riches of this world.

As a rule husbands are just what you make them, (of course it won't do to tell him this) and the better material you have to start on the better job you can perform with the same amount of labor. If you have a bump of cheerfulness developed in your nature, don't marry a tombstone. Atgeth'er he is about as genial as an iceberg and you will go plodding through life with him to the dead march of his own laden thoughts. You may be distant and dignified, you couldn't freeze him colder than he is; you may love and pet him, it is a waste of ammunition, he can't be thawed out. Above all things don't marry a dude. He is weak-minded, and a contemptible apology for a man. God created him a man, therefore let him pass for one; but one good, honest inquisious young man is worth all the floating fops in the world. Unless they can they choose wisely, or learn to manage a man, girls had better set their affections on cats or puppies and let matrimony alone.

THE HOME.

Whatever may be said of woman's mission on earth and of her power, social and otherwise, it is in the home that she exerts the greatest influence, molding the character of her children and giving the impress of her own life upon every member of the household. That there are other spheres in which she may take part is not questioned. If she must support herself, or if there are others dependent upon her, we think she has a right to select a vocation or a profession, but it is in the home that she displays her powers to the best advantage.

KIND WORDS.

As the breath of dew on the tender plant, they fall gently upon the drooping heart, refreshing its withered tendrils and soothing its burning woes. Bright oases they are in life's greatest desert. Who can estimate the pang that have alleviated, or the good works they have accomplished.

Long after they are uttered do they reverberate in the son's inner chambers and sing low, sweet, liquid strains that quell all the raging storms that may have before existed. And, oh, when the heart is sad, and like a broken harp, the sweetest chords of pleasure cease to vibrate, who can tell the power of one kind word? One little word of tenderness gushing in upon the soul will sweep the long neglected chords, and awaken the most pleasant strains.

PURE WATER.

Fire and water are two elements which man cannot get along without--especially water. The water we are writing about in this article, however, is not the fluid ships sail upon; or boys swim in, or in which fish live, but a different brand. It is just as powerful as the kind which flows in its magnificence over Niagara Falls, or turns the wheels of the mighty mills and factories situated along the banks of some swiftly running stream. Its action is like the tiny drop which finally wears away the largest stone. Unlike the pure, cold, crystal water of our forefathers, or the sweet and tasty fluid drawn from the well's means of the moss-covered and iron-bound bucket its action is evil, cruel and heart-breaking.

The cold water we refer to comes in different colored bottles with variegated labels. Nagging is one brand. The habit of finding fault,

The people of this section need a little more schooling in regard to the bonds to build a new Court-house. If the proper instructors don't come around she is a gone issue. What a great pity it would be. A new Court-house is badly needed, and that is the best way to get one. I would love for the people to wake up and join hand in hand with us and make our county seat the model of our proud old State as she is one among the richest counties in the State. It seems an assured fact that we will soon have a railroad down Goose creek which will greatly benefit our county. Let her come. Let's hear from some else in regard to the new Court-house. Come, don't be afraid to speak out. Remember the time for action is now at hand. J. W. M.

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods,
wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is

WINE OF CARDUI

THE FEMALE REGULATOR,

that marvelous, curative extract, or natural wine, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful, strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the womb muscles to pull the womb up into place.

It is a sure and permanent cure for all female complaints.
